Annual City-Wide Scavenger Hunt for People with Developmental Disabilities Kicks Off This Friday

Presenting Sponsor Paige Fowler, Financial Advisor with Edward Jones helps raise over $4,000 to support Center for Developmentally Disabled

Kansas City, MO: (September 27, 2017) The Center for Developmentally Disabled (CDD) will kick off its 3rd Annual Scavenger Hunt this Friday morning September, 29th at 9:00am in the parking lot of its new building at 9150 E 41st Terrace in Kansas City, MO. During the week-long scavenger hunt, 8 teams of nearly 180 adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities will work together to complete tasks like “Locate your local fire station. Make a thank you poster and deliver it to the firefighters who work there” and “Ask a CDD employee put on a clown nose and pretend like they are a Circus Clown.”

The format of this unique event provides opportunities for people with developmental disabilities to socialize in their community while raising awareness about this population. It is a week of laughter and adventure for the people CDD serves and new friends in the community they make along the way.

Paige Fowler, Financial Advisor with Edward Jones is Presenting Sponsor of this year’s CDD Scavenger Hunt. CDD also welcomes Gold Sponsors Will & Denise Talbert and Karrie & Denise Duke, Silver Sponsors Bambou Salon and Spa, GoodWorks KC, the Rotary Club of Eastern Independence, William Porter Insurance Agency Inc., ProPrint Digital, and Bronze Sponsors Haas & Wilkerson Insurance, Genoa, Eclipse Turf & Lawn, Therap, Cuddle Up Pup, Cat’s Typesetting, and WebDeb Websites.

Opportunities for sponsorship are still available.

Proceeds from sponsorship will support Center for Developmentally Disabled’s mission to support persons with disabilities through access to safe housing, caring support, and opportunities to build relationships in the community.
